Focus:

As a senator, Bogh advocates for housing affordability, supporting a strong economic recovery (i.e., rebuilding health, education, businesses, and morale from inflation and the COVID-19 pandemic), supporting small and local businesses, strengthening public safety, local school boards to empower parental involvement (i.e., the state should not have more authority over a child than their family unit), preserve local control, lower taxes, strengthening school/education system (including encouraging students to pursue higher education), reinforce infrastructures, and the 4th Amendment.

After obtaining her teaching credentials at CSUSB, she became an English Language Learner (ELL) teacher at Riley Elementary School from 1996 to 1999 before becoming a real estate agent for Century 21 Lois Lauer Realty in 2003. Currently, Bogh has been a proud Realtor for the past 20 years, helping others to achieve the American Dream. Furthermore, Bogh served on the East Valley Association Board of Realtors and was the former Chair of the Yucaipa Valley Chamber of Commerce.
