Play Experience Workshop for Adults

"Creating Bonds that Last"

Partnered with:

Presented by:
Norma Moreno

In this workshop, we encourage fathers and father-like figures to reflect on their early play experiences. Participants will use their imagination to create and rediscover play with open-ended materials. They will reflect through drawing, writing, interacting, and sharing their creations. Join us to explore ways to create a fun experience for the entire family. This is a hands on workshop.

- Learn new early play experiences.
- Rediscover old games with unique materials.
- Come along to unearth methods to generate a joyous experience for the whole family.
- Rekindle familiar games from child experiences
